INTUITIVE CONCEPTS RECEIVES CONSUMER EXCELLENCE (ACE) AWARD

Presented by NARI of Central Ohio

SUNBURY, OH, (May 25, 2011) – Intuitive Concepts, Inc. has been recognized as a recipient of the 2010 NARI ACE Award. The ACE Award (Achievement in Consumer Excellence) is presented by the National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI) of Central Ohio. The ACE Award, a consumer-rated awards program, honors NARI members that provide exemplary products and/or service. The award recognizes professionals in the remodeling industry and vendors that receive a high overall rating on four criteria as judged by consumers who have actually used their products and/or services. Unlike some other rating services, consumers do not pay a subscription fee to submit a rating or receive a referral.

“This consumer-rated program provides assurance that consumers can count on quality, professional services. It provides a no-cost mechanism for consumers to provide feedback on work performed for them by NARI members, who must demonstrate professional values and follow a strict code of ethics,” states Shari Bates, Executive Director of NARI of Central Ohio.

“We are very proud to receive this recognition five years in a row.” Said President & CEO of Intuitive Concepts, Diana Garber. “Feng Shui is energy management—how people experience their working and living spaces. I compare it to the human cell... in a nurturing environment it thrives; in a hostile environment, it struggles. Feng Shui mitigates risk and maximizes results. Clients report improvements in all aspects of their lives – health, relationships, success, and much more.” Garber says. “We continue to raise our industry’s bar by providing premier customer service. I thank our clients and NARI for recognizing our hard work and dedication, and encourage people to learn more about us at IntuitiveConcepts.com.”
