Diana Garber of Intuitive Concepts Presents Feng Shui for Business Case Study on February 19, 2015

SUNBURY, OH, (February 5, 2015) The Feng Shui for Business workshop is an ideal way to learn how Feng Shui principles and practices can affect the success of a business. You'll learn how Feng Shui can help to energize and empower a location, the commercial building, and staff members in the building. In addition, since this workshop is being held on the site of the case study, you'll be able to experience the enhanced energy and assess how your own business can benefit from Feng Shui.

Diana Garber, an internationally renowned Feng Shui Master, and her company, Intuitive Concepts, will take attendees through the process of how she evaluates a business as she walks them through the actual site itself. She'll explain the methodology of how Feng Shui can play an integral part of the success, struggle, or even failure of a business. You will hear from Hina Environmental Solutions (HES) just how Ms. Garber's suggestions increased sales, improved recruiting, forged relationships, and created a harmonious environment.

The case study will reveal how Hina Environmental Solutions (HES) purchased the building and had plans drawn up before they approached Diana to perform a commercial consultation on their yet-to-be remodeled place of business. After analyzing the land, parking lot, building, and HES' leadership team, Diana suggested the design change because she recognized the proposed redesign wouldn't create the type of results the owners of the company wanted for their business. Her recommendations affected traffic flow, the parking lot, the exterior, the interior, and staff office assignments.

What was the result? HES wrote for Garber saying that in July they were $500,000 ahead of their yearly sales goal, and gross margins were the highest they've ever been! Then, after assessing year-end-results, HES said the trend continued. When they met with their advisory team, Brian and Susan Hina said, "we attribute our 2014 success to six factors – and Feng Shui is one of them."
