FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
January 21, 2009

INTUITIVE CONCEPTS, INC., TO SPEAK TO FANNING-HOWEY ASSOCIATES

Co-Sponsored by King Business Interiors

This 2-hour lunch 'n learn addresses design and architecture for schools. How can the environment influence students so that some zone out and daydream, or spiral out of control? Can design promote aggression and abuse? Yes! The school, as well as the classroom can help students focus, or over-stimulate them. It can promote productivity and creativity, or complacency. Funding and community support can also be affected. From design of the landscape, to the building, to the classroom – Feng Shui an important factor for master planning. We'll discuss these concepts, trends, as well as research that's been done. This workshop was presented to the Ohio Association Education and National Education Association.

This event is private. If you would like Diana Garber to speak at your next event, please contact our office at 866-689-6891 or visit us on the Web at www.intuitiveconcepts.com.
