INTUITIVE CONCEPTS, INC.
RECEIVES CONSUMER EXCELLENCE (ACE) AWARD
Presented by NARI

Intuitive Concepts, Inc. has been recognized as a recipient of the 2007 NARI ACE Award. The ACE Award is presented by the National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI) of Central Ohio. The ACE (Achievement in Consumer Excellence) Award, a consumer rated awards program, honors NARI members that provide exemplary products and/or service. The award recognizes professionals in the remodeling industry and vendors that receive a high overall rating on four criteria as judged by consumers who have actually used their products and/or services. Unlike some other rating services, consumers do not pay a subscription fee to submit a rating or receive a referral.

The NARI Ace Award provides consumers a valuable tool to help them begin and complete successful remodeling projects, and that tool is the knowledge that they are selecting a professional remodeling contractor or product supplier that they can count on to do the quality work they desire. This consumer-rated program provides additional assurance that consumers can count on quality, professional services. The program also provides a no-cost mechanism for consumers to provide feedback on work performed for them by NARI members, who must demonstrate professional values and follow a strict code of ethics,” states Shari Bates, Executive Director of NARI of Central Ohio.

Consumers have rated all ACE Award recipients on four criteria: 1. Quality of Work; 2.

Professionalism; 3. Reliability; and 4. Timeliness. In order to receive the NARI Ace Award, the company must be a member of NARI and must receive an average grade of 3.5 or better based on the alphabetic scores submitted by consumers.

“We are proud to receive this recognition two years in a row.” Said owner and Feng Shui consultant, Diana Garber. “Feng Shui is energy management—how people experience their space. I compare it to the human cell... in a nurturing environment it thrives; in a hostile environment, it struggles. Feng Shui mitigates risk and maximizes results. Clients report improvements in all aspects of their lives – health, relationships, success, and much more.” Garber says. “We raised the bar for our peers and for quality customer service. I thank our clients and NARI of Central Ohio for recognizing our hard work and dedication, and encourage people to learn more at IntuitiveConcepts.com.”

The NARI ACE Awards were presented during the NARI annual Awards Gala which was held on Friday, December 7th, 2007 at the Columbus Museum of Art.
