INTUITIVE CONCEPTS RECEIVES CONSUMER EXCELLENCE (ACE) AWARD

Presented by NARI of Central Ohio

Intuitive Concepts, Inc. has been recognized as a recipient of the 2008 NARI ACE Award. The ACE Award (Achievement in Consumer Excellence) is presented by the National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI) of Central Ohio. The ACE Award, a consumer-rated awards program, honors NARI members that provide exemplary products and/or service. The award recognizes professionals in the remodeling industry and vendors that receive a high overall rating on four criteria as judged by consumers who have actually used their products and/or services. Unlike some other rating services, consumers do not pay a subscription fee to submit a rating or receive a referral.

“This consumer-rated program provides assurance that consumers can count on quality, professional services. It provides a no-cost mechanism for consumers to provide feedback on work performed for them by NARI members, who must demonstrate professional values and follow a strict code of ethics,” states Shari Bates, Executive Director of NARI of Central Ohio.

“We are proud to receive this recognition three years in a row.” Said President & CEO of

Intuitive Concepts, Diana Garber. “Feng Shui is energy management—how people experience their space. I compare it to the human cell... in a nurturing environment it thrives; in a hostile environment, it struggles. Feng Shui mitigates risk and maximizes results. Clients report improvements in all aspects of their lives – health, relationships, success, and much more.” Garber says. “We raised the bar for our peers by proving premier customer service. I thank our clients and NARI of Central Ohio for recognizing our hard work and dedication, and encourage people to learn more at IntuitiveConcepts.com.”
