Diana Garber, Feng Shui Master for Intuitive Concepts, is Speaking at the Universal Life Expo October 26.
“2015 Will Be An Interesting Year. Be Informed To Make The Best of It!”

SUNBURY, OH, (October 22, 2014) – Diana Garber is asked each year to speak about energy for the upcoming year. She does extensive research on energy trends, historical facts, and performs her analyses. Ms. Garber is a classically-trained international Feng Shui consultant who has a litany of firsts to her accomplishments. In addition to her endorsements over 30 years in the U.S. and abroad, she was accredited in 2005 as a clinical instructor and Feng Shui practitioner for The Ohio State University.

Diana’s mastery in the ancient study of classic Feng Shui incorporates quantum physics principles and algorithms in order to derive statistical probabilities that she shares with her commercial and residential clients. Her response when asked about 2015 is “it is a challenging year if we don’t find ways to unmask opportunities. Manage your environment consciously or unconsciously it manages you©. Our action or inaction can result in negative implications such as miscommunication or conflict. I choose positive implications, which is why I’m offering this free lecture. Trauma can be tampered by our reaction, and knowledge is power.” Garber says.

The energy that affects business, people, and their homes can show positive effects but also intensify the negative risks depending on directions and the flow of energy. Businesses need to be assertive regarding their work force as unrest is likely. Tempers will be of concern at work and home so brush up on anger management strategies. Also, there are certain months that present more challenges (weather being one concern), and certain months that create opportunities,” Garber elaborates.

Are you asking yourself, what does Feng Shui have to do with risk management? Garber is not only a master of authentic Feng Shui (a deep and intricate process), she’s a former disaster recovery manager for a Fortune 100 company. She annually goes through the process of translating implications for commercial and residential clients. Does it work? This client says yes \(\$500,000 ahead of their year’s sales goal\)!

Ideally, contacting Master Garber would be the best approach to learn about 2015, the Three Year and Wood Goat. Meanwhile, attend Universal Life Expo at Columbus, Ohio’s Convention Center on Sunday, October 26, 2014, at 1:00.

Of course the best approach to greet 2015 is to obtain your own consult – one that is completely customized for your business or home. Knowledge and awareness are the best ways to prepare for change.
