

March 1, 2010

To Whom It May Concern:

I was intrigued with the very first phone conversation with Diana Garber, owner of Intuitive Concepts. She interviewed me for cleaning services. The interview was the most thorough of any I'd been through.

When I'm there, I overhear her on the telephone. She is a very compassionate, giving, and fun-loving person. I believe she truly wants to change the world and make it a better place for everyone.

Diana treats her vendors the same way she treats her clients – with respect and courtesy. How many vendors can say that, especially cleaning services?

I could tell from the interview that Diana was organized and thorough, and observing her I now know that to be even more true. Diana has become a friend as well as one of my clients.

Sincerely,

Gina Butler
White Gloves Cleaning